This date will ordinarily be 21 days before trial unless the declination procedure provided by L.R. 116.6 has been invoked before the Initial Pretrial Conference. See L.R. 117.1(A)(4). The judge who will preside at trial may, however, establish a date different from any date provided by L.R. 117.1 if the judge determines that there are factors in the particular case that make it in the interests of justice to do so. See L.R. 117.1(B).

The reference to a trial brief should be deleted if it is not appropriate to require that one be filed. See L.R. 117.1(A)(7).

motion in limine shall be filed by May 13 ,2005

6. The government shall by May 9 ,2005.<sup>3</sup>

(a) Provide the defendant with the names and addresses of witnesses the government intends to call at trial in its case-in-chief. If the government subsequently forms an intent to call any other witness, the government shall promptly notify the defendant of the name and address of that prospective witness.

(b) Provide the defendant with copies of the exhibits and a premarked list of exhibits the government intends to offer in its case-in-chief. If the government subsequently decides to offer any additional exhibit in its case-in-chief, the government shall promptly provide the defendant with a copy of the exhibit and a supplemental exhibit list.

7. The defendant shall by May 11 ,2005<sup>4</sup>

(a) Provide the government with the names and addresses of the witnesses the defendant intends to call in his case-in-chief. If the defendant subsequently forms an intent to call any other witness in his case-in-chief, he shall promptly notify the government of the name and address of that witness.

(b) Provide the government with copies of the exhibits and a premarked list of the exhibits the defendant intends to offer in his case-in-chief. If the defendant subsequently decides to offer any additional exhibits in his case-in-chief, he shall promptly provide the government with a copy of the exhibit and a supplemental exhibit list
